CAVALIER

Dear Leslie,

Well, what can I say? We've been here three years and it's gone by a little too fast for me. It probably went too fast for you, too! Alot has happened this year, too. Thanks for being such a good listener when I needed someone to talk to. As you know I had alot of problems this year and it looks like I've got more problems ahead of me. I can't believe all happened to me. It's like a big nightmare I can't wake up from.

Never forget all the fun that did happen this year. Also never forget Religion. Especially now. I know that about a third of the way

Dear leslie,

I didn't mean to be such a hambone when I asked if you reserved a place for me. I am perfectly content to take you on a journey through the yearbook pages and I promise that we will hit all the high spots and see the greatest sights on our sojourn.

I don't know how schmalzy I can get because I am so out of practice. Let's start with how beautiful nature has made herself this May. There are countless clovers and violets dotting the landscape - especially inviting in their odorous display. John Denver would be proud to sing a song about our wondrously refreshing thunderstorms. And wouldn't you be glad to listen!

I owe you my thanks for the ride home today and I was flattered and intrigued that you remembered where I lived. Your memory is exceeded only by your deep

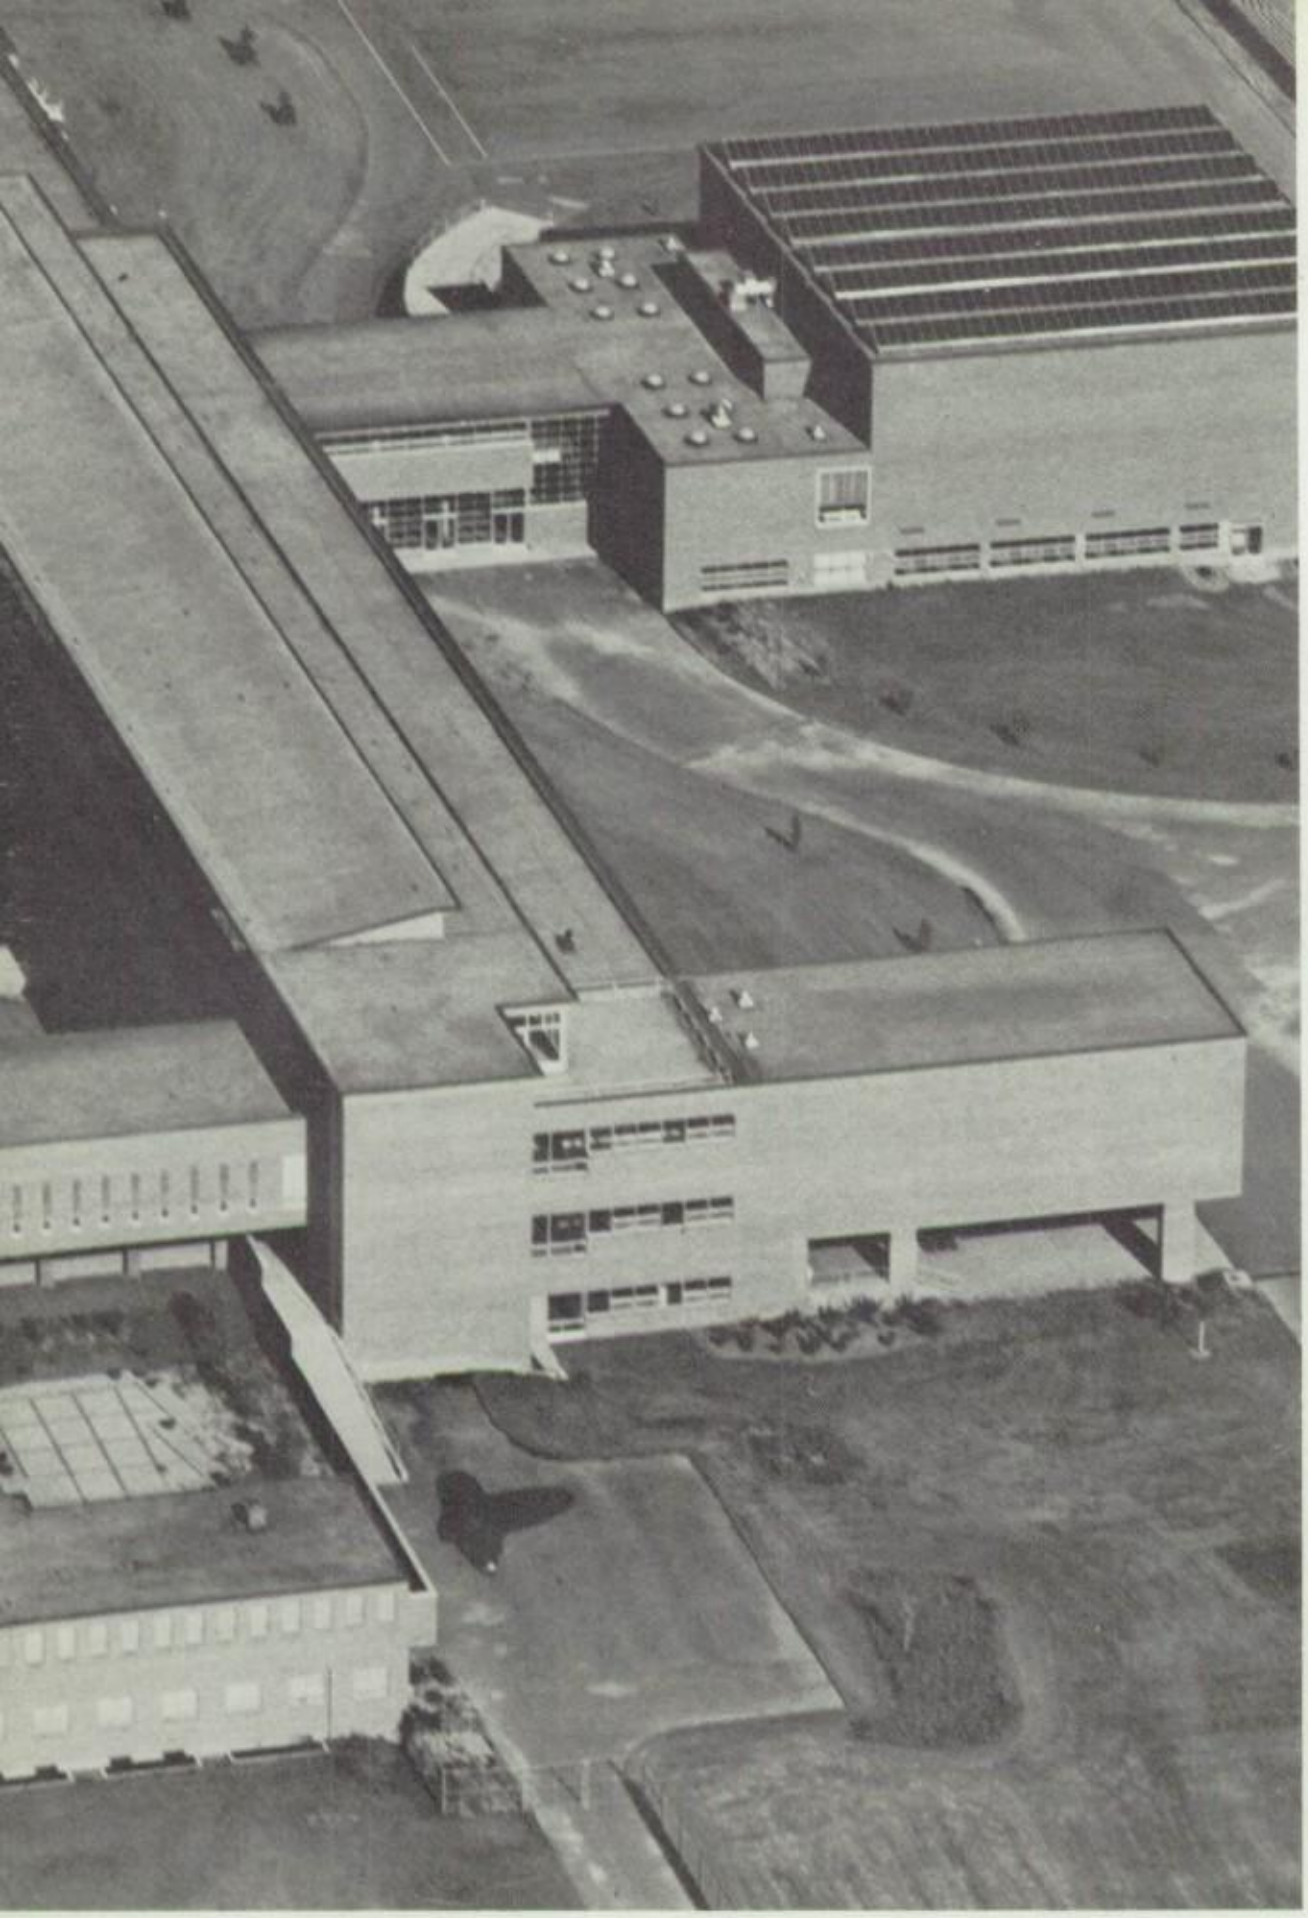
STUDENT PUBLICATION OF

BISHOP DUBOURG HIGH SCHOOL

5850 Eichelberger Street
St. Louis, Missouri 63109

You've come a long way DB



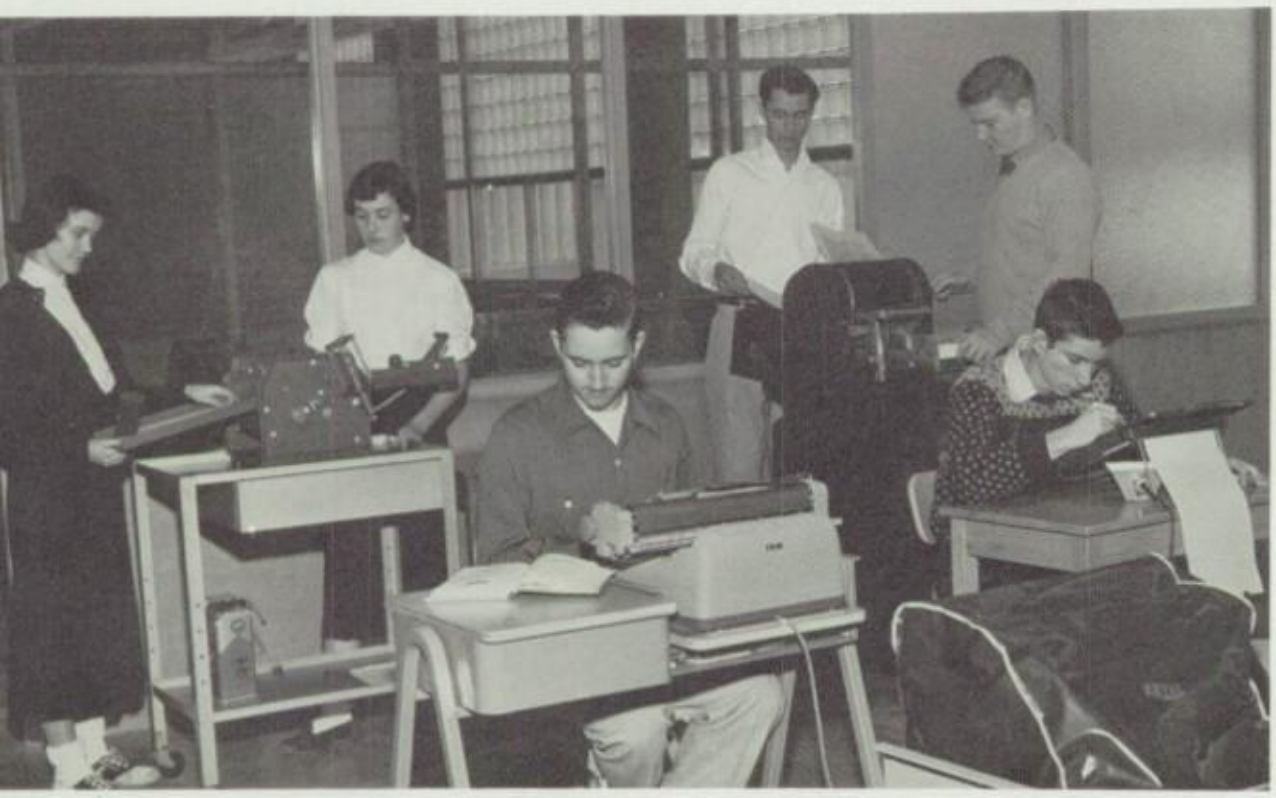
Twenty-five years ago a new school, Bishop DuBourg, set up temporary quarters on the spacious grounds of Jefferson Barracks. Ninety-five students and five teachers made up the human faction of the school.

Today DB boasts of a student body of approximately two thousand and a faculty of one hundred and twelve. The building, now located on Eichelberger, overlooks the St. Louis Hills area.

Get together now, get together right now

Despite appearances, the students of yesteryear are the same as students of today. They grouped, they studied and complained about homework just as DB kids do today. When 3:00 finally rolled around, students stampeded out of DB with echoing screams, "See ya at Steak," just as kids now race to Jack-in-the-Box. Where yesterday's teeny-boppers collected to "grease a tomato pie" (eat a pizza), the present teen-age gourmets choose burgers and fries.

The school was alive with



A building is not a school, it is the people inside who are the school. It is the long-remembered teacher and the careful student. It is those who care, who have fun, who are creative and original. It is those who are always there. Involvement and class spirit brings students and faculty together as a community.

the sound of people

Go, fight, win

"Let's play ball!" is a familiar cry even today. The shaping of teams is a big moment for every school. Football, soccer, basketball, and baseball were started in 1950, the opening year of DB. Gymnastic and swim teams were among the different but short lived organizations. Each team thrived on the excitement of the sport and the support of the fans.

T DEEP

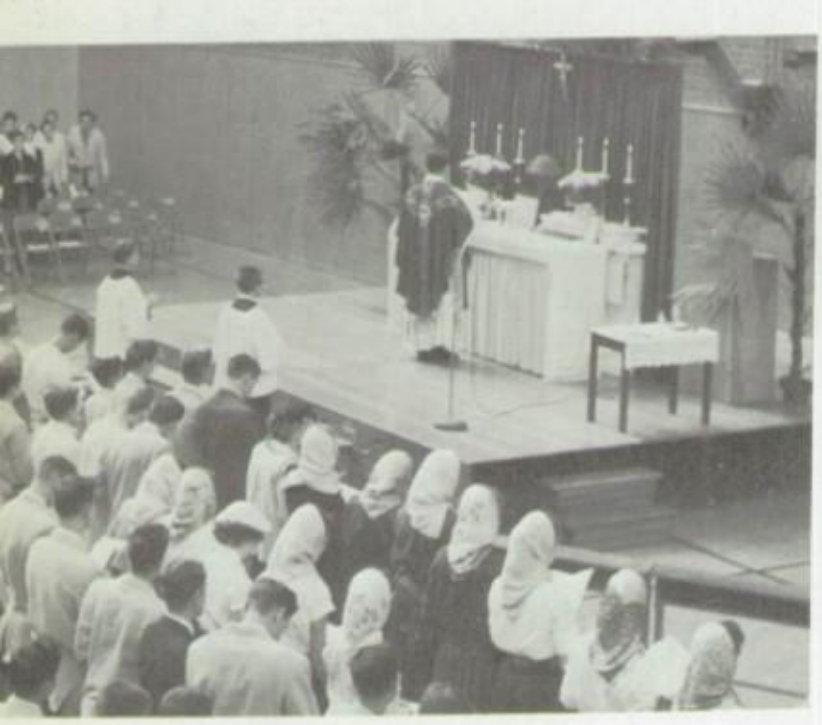
And the band played on

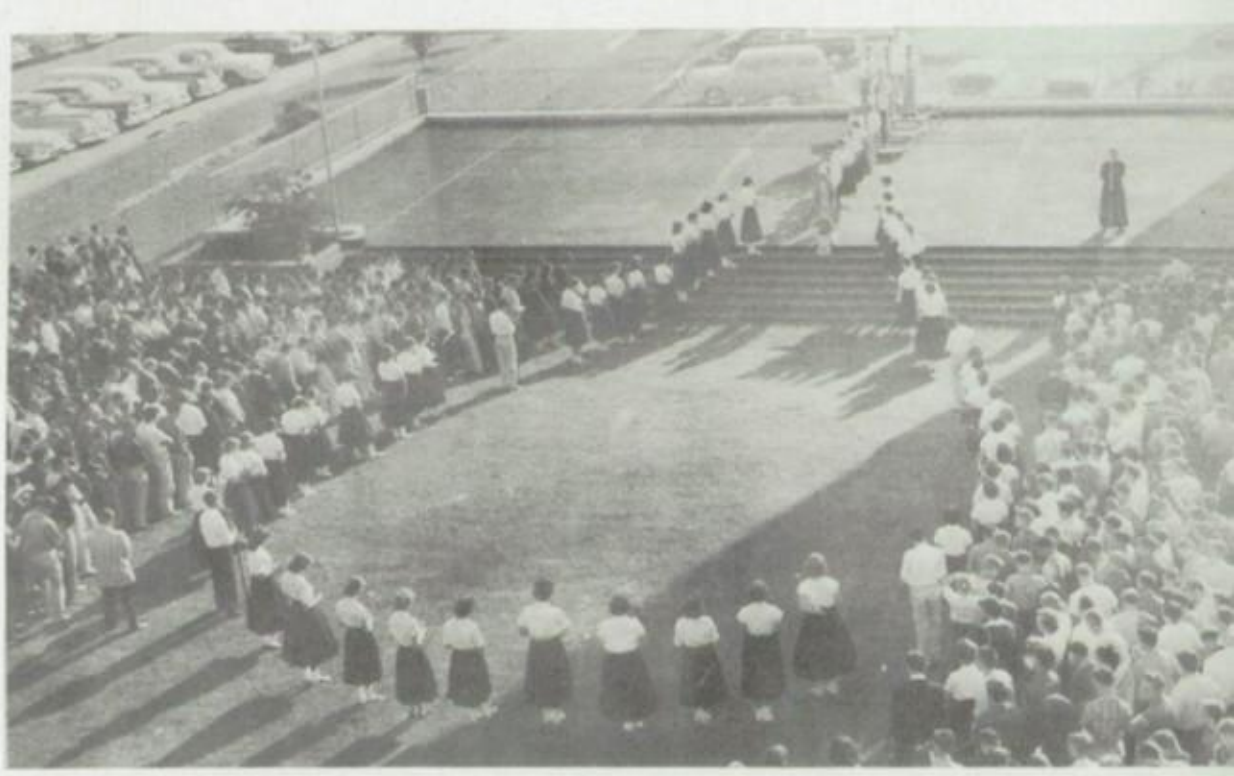
"You can rock and you can roll, do the step and do the stroll at the hop, hop, hop." When rock was young, students jitterbugged, strolled, jerked and twisted around the auditorium. As for the prom, fairyland could not be more complete. Each girl was a Cinderella and each boy a Prince Charming as they waltzed in long full dresses and sharp tuxedos.

Up with the curtain

Bishop DuBourg's first musical production presented on the outdoor stage was Finian's Rainbow. Because of overcast skies promising rain, the musical Love from Judy was presented at Kiel Auditorium. Brigadoon, the first to be given inside the school building was the head of a long list of successful DB productions.

Together we prayed





An important part of every school year here at DuBourg has been its spiritual programs. More often than not the entire student body participated in the planning of these events. Spiritual ceremonies such as the school Masses and the living Rosary helped to bring the school population closer to each other and to God.

In a school the size of DB, waiting in line sometimes seems a way of life. When the Supreme Court reversed the Free Textbook decision on June 14, 1974, students waited in vain for hours on book day. And when books were finally distributed, there were more lines.

And so the lines will go on —— and on. Today's students follow some nine thousand who have gone before them in the past twenty-five years. And they will be followed by, who knows, how many, many more down the lines of the years to come.

The term home economics is almost a self explanatory phrase. It is the art of homemaking. The movement started in the Nineteenth Century by Ellen Richards is now recognized as a standard science. As a department, it provides students with skills needed to run a household, to build harmonious families, and to treasure the steps of child development. In the last few years, boys as well as girls train for homemaking, cooking, and child care.

Close is the link between mind and body. Not only does a good school stress the development of intellectual potentials but also the development of the physical as well. When it was discovered after World War II that one third of the men of major countries were unfit, physical education programs in the schools were intensified. The Physical Education Department of DuBourg has a varied system of exercise and a strong program of competitive sports.

The air has a strange mingling of excitement, not the least of which is wondering what "this year" will bring.

A con-celebrated Mass held special meaning for the seniors Friday, Sept. 13, because it was Ring Day. Afterwards, proud seniors stepped up to the altar to receive their rings. Mr. Rothery sang the class song, "We May Never Pass This Way Again" to honor the occasion. Later that night seniors danced in a splendidly decorated gym.

The national anthem began the program, and the cheerleaders shouted out to the rallying crowd to open the Jubilee Year. With the entire student body gathered outside at the gym steps, Mr. Hacker officially declared the beginning of jubilee celebrations.

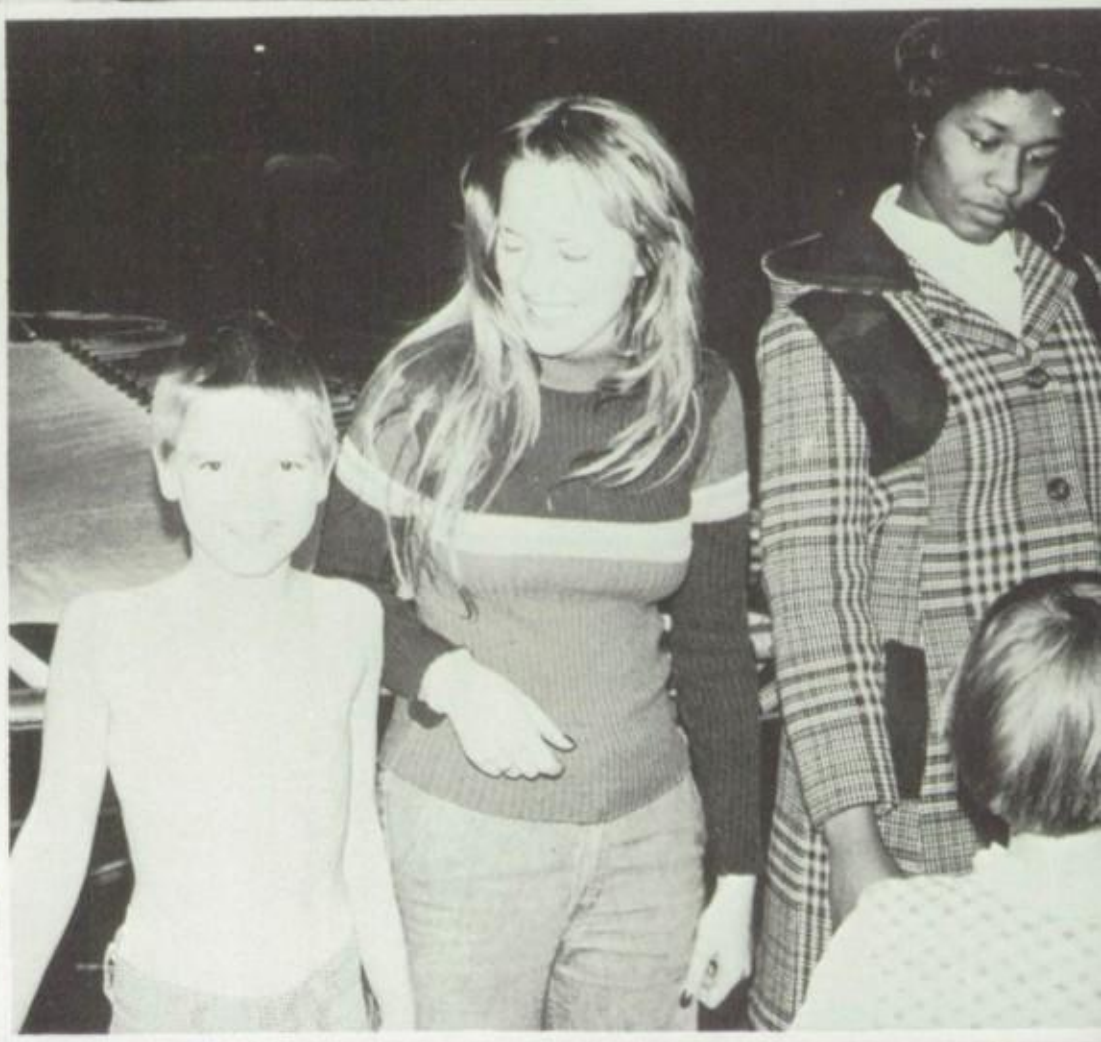
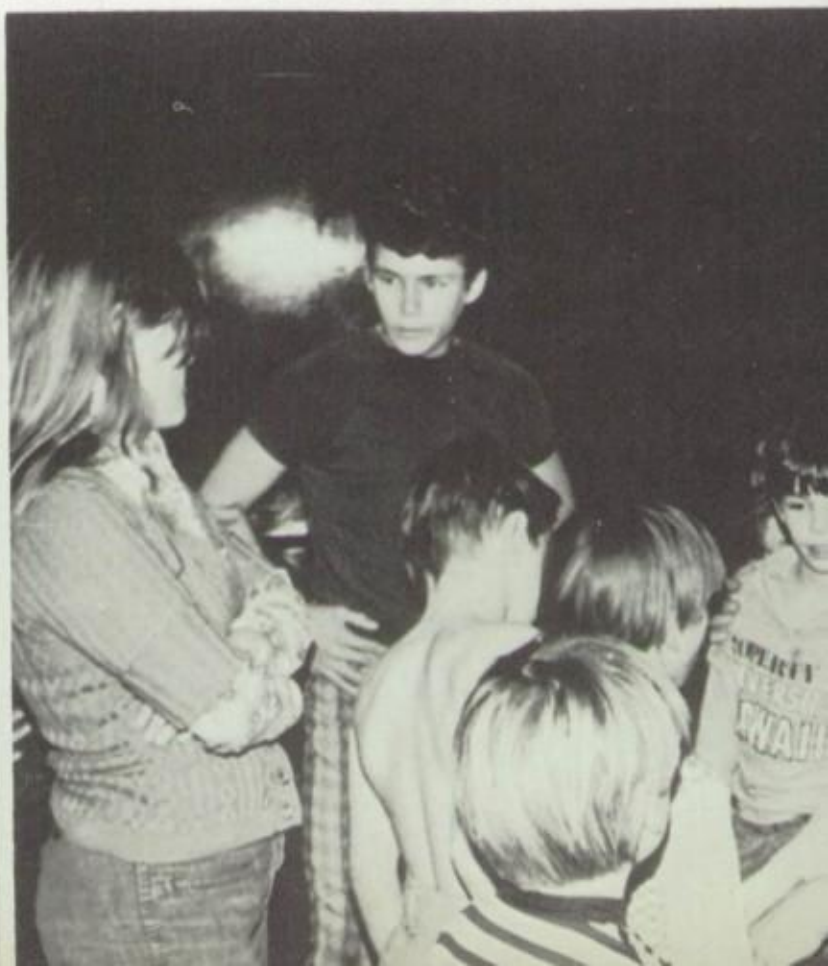
Spook's delight

Hundreds of children had fun and games at the Pro-Life Hallowe'en Party. To give children too young to go trick-or-treating from house to house a chance to join in Hallowe'en fun, the Pro-Life group gave a party with everything from a scary spook house to apple-dunking.

Open House

Wednesday nights, students from Mr. Laux's American Problems class host a group of children from the City Hospital Youth Center. These emotionally disturbed youths are treated to an evening of fun using the gym and the equipment. Christmas had basketball's Tiny Wehner as Santa hearing the request lists of the little people in the group.

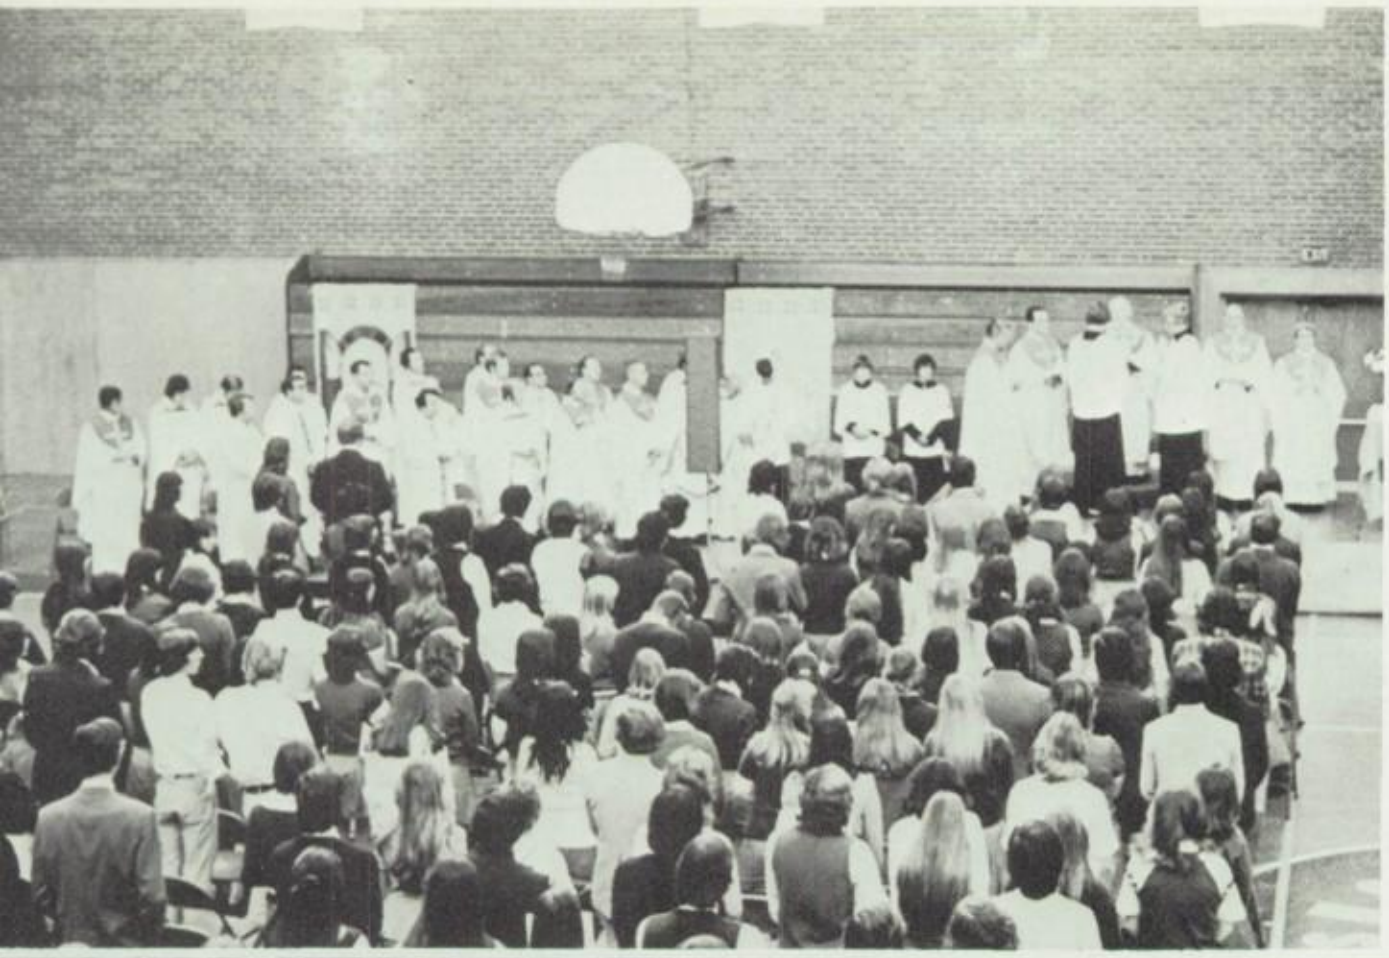




Noel, Noel

Christmas is a time to sing out the holiday spirit and DB did just that. All groups in the Music Department exhibited their talents in the Concert of Carols. Classes on each floor vied with one another to "deck the halls" most appropriately for the season.

Once in 25 years



On Pastoral Day '74, DuBourg was honored to have among its visiting priests His Eminence John Joseph Cardinal Carberry. The cardinal con-celebrated Mass in the gym with some 70 priests. Speaking at the Mass, the cardinal congratulated DuBourg on its 25 years of service and wished it an even better future. Rose Milford, representing the student body, presented His Eminence with a school letter and an engraved plaque.

Bow Tie Special

Since the opening of this school, the present administrator, Mr. Hacker, has been on the staff. This year, on a secretly assigned day, the entire school tried to make his 25th year memorable by proclaiming Mr. Hacker Day. Everyone in school wore a bow tie, and in a special assembly of all 1950 students, presented Mr. Hacker with jubilee gifts.

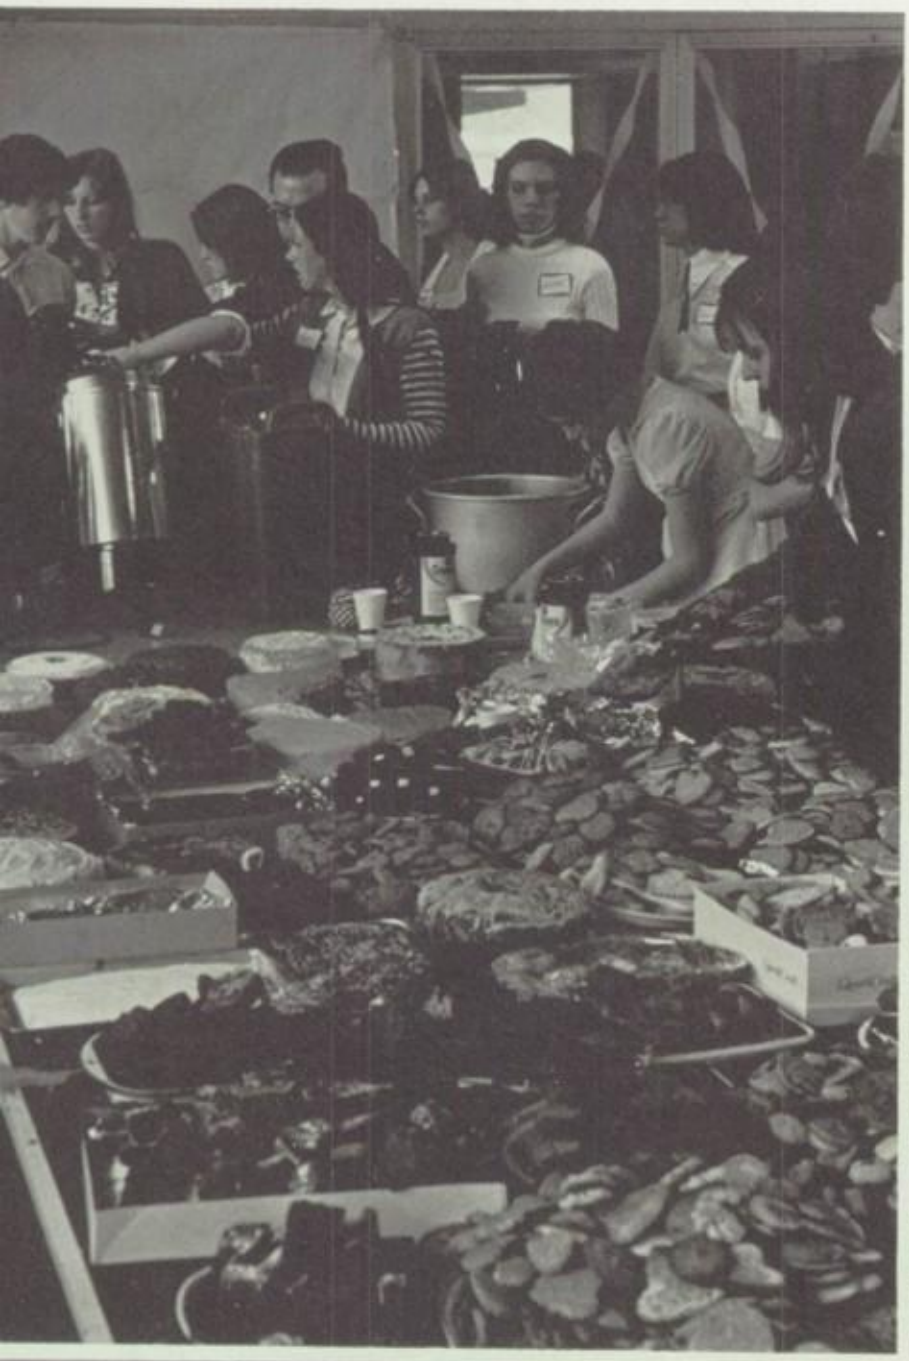
At an assembly proposed by former student Paul DiGregorio and sponsored by the Social Studies Department, Mr. Ashcroft, candidate for State Auditor, spoke to the students early in the year. He explained the role of auditor and answered questions. However, in the election, he lost.

Celebrating life



Dressed for the early 1900's, the Pro-Life Group escorted elderly St. Louisans to the gym for the annual Valentine Party. Reliving the World's Fair with hot-dogs and ice cream cones, some 800 senior citizens enjoyed the day as guests of DuBourg. Mixing the "old with the new" was a happy experience for both sides.

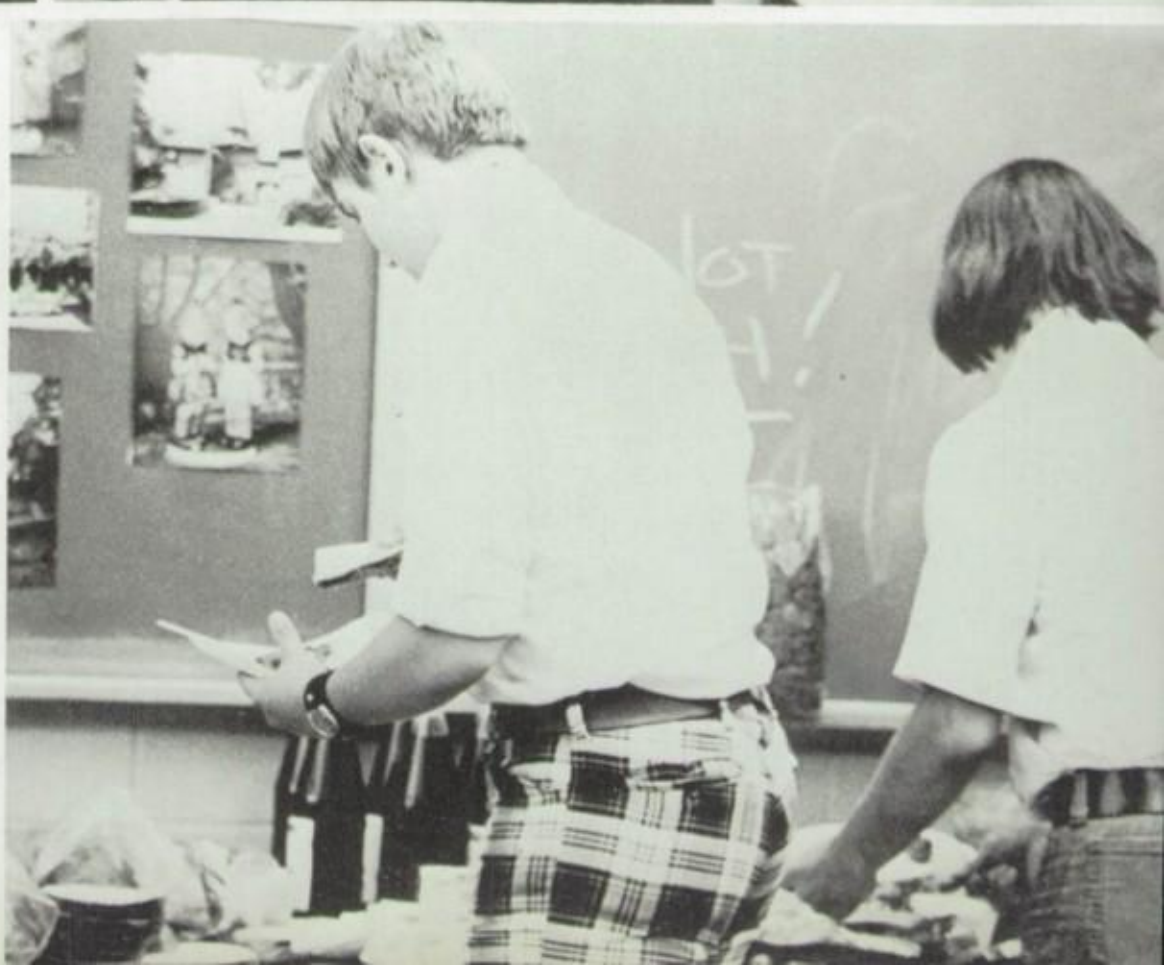
Lights, Action...

Besides the annual musical production, DuBourg's Guild Players present several plays for the public. This year's repertoire included The Boy-Friend, The Importance of Being Earnest, and By the Skin of Our Teeth. Mr. Leibrecht directs the group.

Language classes — German, French, Spanish, Latin — furthered their knowledge of the foreign cultures by having ethnic meals. Through these meals and cultural entertainment, the students learn more of the country they are studying.



Among various activities commemorating the school's Silver Jubilee, were gatherings of former faculty and alumni and of present teachers and students. Former priest teachers concelebrated. Musicians contributed song and harmony. Friends renewed acquaintances. Among those returning was Father John Shocklee, first co-principal of DuBourg when it began in 1950.

State Cross Country,

I also can't forget to mention the Blues. Especially Gerry, John, and all the other great guys. Have fun tonight at John Denver's Concert. I know you will. Bring back some of his "Rocky Mountain High" feeling.

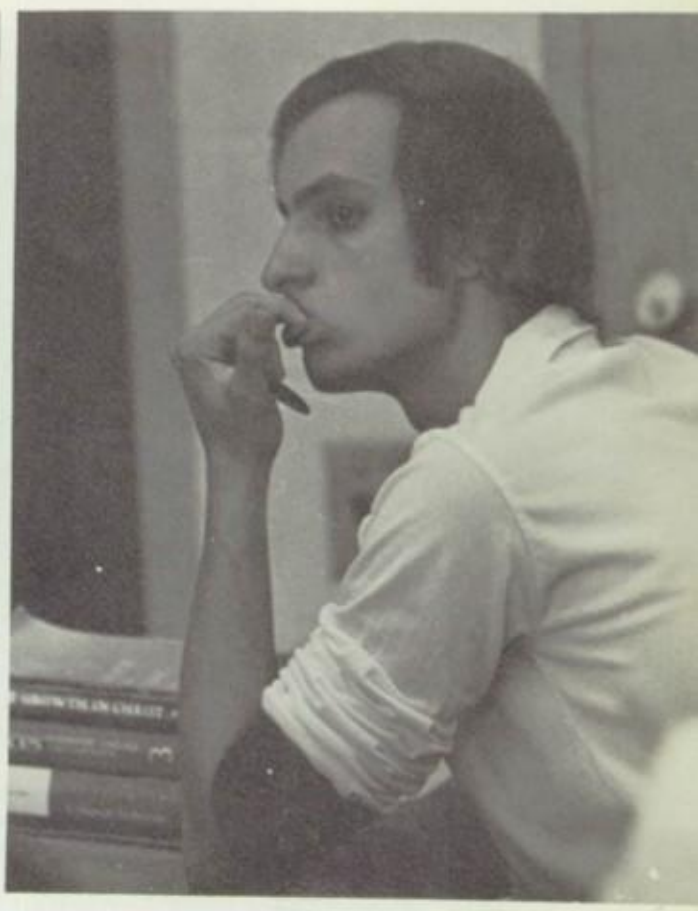
Nyah. Anybody can get an A.

I could translate it, too, if all I did was study.

Yeah, I need all the homework.
Yeah, the term paper, too.

Me? Dress code violation?



Wonder if the Colonel started this way?

You mean everybody behind me is asleep?

Rummy, black jack, or poker?

I wish he'd drop dead.

She never calls on me
when I know the answer.

Remember-

Life. . .so they say is but a game and they let it slip away.

Love. . .like the autumn sun should be dying but
it's only just begun
like the twilight in the road up ahead.

They don't see just where we're goin'
and all the secrets of the universe
whisper in our ears
and all the years will come and go
and take us up, always up.

We may never pass this way again. .

Dreams. . .so they say are for the fools and they let them drift away.

Peace. . .like the silent dove should be flyin' but
it's only just begun.

Like Columbus in the olden days,
we must gather all our courage sail our ships out on the open sea,
cast away our fears
and all the years will come and go
and take us up, always up.

We may never pass this way again. . .

So, I wanna laugh while the laughing is easy.
I wanna cry if it makes it worthwhile.
I may never pass this way again. . .

That's why I want it with you cause you make me feel like I'm more than a friend. . .
Like I'm the journey and you're the journey's end. . .

I may never pass this way again. . .
That's why I want it with you.

We may never pass this way again.

Dear Leslie,

This year has been a good year. I've enjoyed it alot. For awhile we seemed to drift apart, but I'm glad we're close again. I seem to be able to talk to you and tell you what I think and feel and you understand. We're alot alike in our ways. Walking through the woods with you today I found that out. We both seem to feel the same about life and nature. I want you to know that I really appreciate your friendship - it means alot to me. Here's a little saying that I hope gets across my thoughts:

The greatest happiness of life is being loved for yourself...
or, more correctly,
being loved in spite of yourself.
(Victor Hugo)

Thank you for being
my friend.

Have fun this summer on the Admiral. I hope I can work there too. Good luck with Tim. I hope you can find love, happiness and contentment with him.

Don't ever forget all the fun we've had the past three years and all the fun I hope we have next year.

Now that you know that I like M. too I guess I can talk about him. I could share my love (liking) for him when you would tell me how much you liked him. Besides, he is cute!

Dear Leslie,

I think I can fill a whole page. Well, at least you will be able to understand me now, cause I don't have to pronounce any words like "logarithatheorims", "imaginitary", "interpoalation", etc, etc., etc. etc. etc.

9/II/1975

Dearest Leslie,

at the moment, (but this is usual) I am at a loss for words, because of this great honor you have so generously bestowed upon my selective soul. I am indeed overwhelmed. If I keep writing this small, it'll take me twice as long to fill this up, and if I keep writing, you'll never be able to decipher this pen-scratch. Lunch is over. To be cont..

9/II/1975: Well, I'm back again, obviously. Now to continue. I think that I need a ruler to write straight across. I think that in a way I've grown in my relationship with you. I somehow feel that I've drawn away from you. I guess that I feel this way because we never go anywhere together and you hang around with Cathy, Gayle Biffie, and of course, Tim. But in a way also I feel closer to you because I can talk to you and you don't laugh at me. You understand so well. A lot has happened to me over this year. It's not all been good, but as I look back on some of it, I figure it was all for the betterment and strength of my character. A lot has happened between Tom and me. And you were good enough to be around when I needed you most. I want to thank you for this; I also wish to thank you from the very bottom of my heart and soul for helping me last week (2/II/1975) when I unexpectedly dropped in. I came so close to losing Tom, that it just strengthened our love for each other. I, now, realize how much I need him; he's my WHOLE life. I want to be at his side, till one of us ceases to exist, and even then, I know we won't be far from each other. This is true love and I'm sincerely glad I found it. Please be my maid of honor, Leslie! I want you in my wedding so bad. It's really important to me!!

I hope that, you and Tim, have as much good fortune as Tom and I. Leslie Aure, doesn't sound bad at all, but Mrs. Timothy Aure has a definite ring to it!! For the two of you, I wish you nothing but luck.

These past three years, we've really grown up a lot, Leslie. I remember the day I met you as a freshman at B. The years have flown by so rapidly. As I think about it, the floods are rushing to my eyes. Time goes so fast. I wish I could slow time down for awhile and let me catch up and figure out where my life is leading me, because it is definitely leading me somewhere. But never-the-less it has been a most glorious and eventful three years. May next year be just as wonderful. And may we become better friends, Leslie. You are very dear to me. I have several poems I wish to make a gift of to you. I will staple them to this page.

Have a FANTASTIC summer. Any time you need a shoulder, I can be reached here: 5200 Finkman, 09 (314)352-3620. Take care!

CONGRATS ON N.H.S.!!! YOU ARE NOW A SELECTIVE MEMBER OF THE NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY — HOLD YOUR HEAD UP HIGH!

This is very hard for me, to think really seriously and actually write it down.

I'm really super glad that we are good friends now. I think we can become super closer in future weeks, months, years, decades, centuries ahead. We gotta get together at least once a week this summer, and maybe double-date. Well, now that my hand has been paralyzed from wrist down, I think I'll stop writing.

Luv, Cathy McLaughlin

Leslie,
I'm really glad for all the great time we had together. I'm glad you joined such a fantastic company as Umgie, I bet you are too. I want no bad reports from you know who.
